Descriptive Copy Unique in Baltimore County ... Day Village is a beautiful waterfront community of rental townhomes in a tranquil setting. Located by the marina at Clement Cove Creek, Day Village offers affordability and wonderful convenience just minutes from shopping, the park, schools, public transportation, the Beltway, Key Bridge, medical facilities, and places of worship.

For about what you would expect to rent an apartment, Day Village townhomes combine all the privacy, space, and luxury of living in your own home with the relaxing, maintenance-free lifestyle that apartment living affords. And Day Village gives you more for your money in so many other ways ... All townhomes are situated on expansive landscaped grounds surrounded by water. The playgrounds and park enhance a wonderful neighborhood setting. Day Village is managed by a caring staff of experienced professionals who maintain the quality of the community and provide superior service to Day Village residents.

So don't settle for less ... if you're still just renting an apartment, visit Day Village Townhomes today.
